ITALIAN WINE GROWERS LOCATIONS -

Latium - Frascati

Lazio is located just outside of Rome. The wine makers predominantly from this region around Rome are best known for white wines such as Marino and the most famous Frascati.

Tuscany & Umbria - Chianti

These two beautiful regions with their magnificent rolling hills, grand and impressive vineyards are home to some of Italy's finest wine makers. Tuscany's most famous and unforgettable wine "Chianti" is well associated with this region.

Emilia - Lambrusco

Located to the west of Bologna is well known for its legendary cuisine and best known for Italy's famous wine "Lambrusco"

Piedmont - Rich Reds

This high altitude region close to the border of France is home to many vineyards, you will find vineyards dating back to the 15th century. This region is famous for their rich reds with complex flavours.

Campania - Lacryma Christi

Wine from this harsh landscape, volcanic soil and hot climate produces stronger, rougher and more powerful flavours. This region near Naples is famous for the "Lacryma Christi" (Tears of Christ)

Sicily - Marsala

This region is home to countless vineyards which produce mostly simple table wine but they are world renowned for the rich and ruby tones of Marsala, a delicious dessert wine
